Auto-Renewal of Your Standard Maintenance and Support, Premium Support or Subscription Plan. Except for No-Charge products, the term of your Plan(s) will automatically renew for successive subscription terms unless you cancel your Plan by providing us written notice at least 30 days prior to the end of your current subscription term. If you decide not to renew, you may notify us by sending notifications to sales@seagullscientific.com, please include your support ID. Canceling your Plan means that you will not be charged for your next billing cycle, but you will not receive any refunds or credits for the amount you have already been charged.
